

University of Derby

Institute of Education

Applicant Privacy Notice

Privacy information for research participants involved in research projects: Evaluation of the Access and Inclusion Model (AIM)

For information about the University's obligations with respect to your data, who you can get in touch with and your rights as a data subject, please visit: <https://www.derby.ac.uk/about/data-governance/privacy-notice/research/>

Why we collect your personal data

We collect personal data under the terms of the University's Royal Charter in our capacity as a teaching and research body to advance education and learning. The specific purpose for data collection on this occasion is research.

Legal basis for processing your personal data under GDPR

The legal basis for processing your personal data on this occasion is explicit consent. We will only use the data you provide in your application with your consent.

Special category personal data

In addition to the legal basis for processing your personal data, the University must meet a further basis when processing any special category data, including personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, or trade union membership, and the processing of genetic data, biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person, data concerning health or data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation.

The basis for processing your sensitive personal data on this occasion is Article 9(2j) - processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

How long we keep your data

Measures to safeguard your identity in stored data include encryption, pseudonymisation and full anonymization, whichever is applicable to the particular research study. Personal data (including contact details given on application) will be deleted on or before 31st December 2023.

Who we share your data with

We will not share your data with any third party.

Transfers of your data outside Europe

If data is transferred out of the European Union we will endeavour to only transfer to countries who are on the EU list of adequate countries or to apply adequate safeguards to protect your privacy.